Met Office Aberdeen Meteorologist's View
Severe wind chill and drifting difficulties anticipated despite the not particularly brisk winds.

Forecast for Thursday 11 Feb 2021
Weather: Very cold again, but most ranges dry with further prolonged sunshine. However a scattering of snow showers may edge into the Trossachs during the evening.

Maximum wind: Easterly increasing from mid-day, 20-25mph by early evening with gusts reaching 40mph across most exposed ridges and summits.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 95% plus, becoming 75% later in the Trossachs.

Visibility: Generally excellent or very good but poor or very poor in later snow showers, also in drifting and where bases lower over hills in and around showers.

Temperature: Glens: Minus 13 Celsius peaking at plus 1 Celsius during afternoon
At 800m: Minus 8-10 Celsius
Freezing level: All levels
